Picks First Black Trustee

The first Negro member of stanford University's board of trustees, Ira de Voyd Jr., 26, was elected last week by the university's alumni. Hall and three other alumni were chosen by mail ballot as additions to the board under a new ruling adding two members 35 or younger and two members 36 or older.

Hall a 1966 graduate and class president, lives in East Palo Alto and is executive director of the stanford Mid-Penninsula Urban Coalition.

New Political Party

The United Citizen's party, a predominantly Negro group, filed additional petition signatures last week in an attempt to qualify as a recognized political party in South Carolina.

O. Frank Thornton, Secretary of State, said the additions might "possibly be enough" to give the party the 10,000 qualified signatures necessary to get names of its candidates on the ballot.

Though not in time for the November election the party has nominated two write in candidates: Thomas D. Broadwater, Columbia attorney, for governor, and the Rev. Julius C. McTeer, a Methodist minister from Ridgeville, for lieutenant governor.

Price Policy on Hannon Lots

The mimimum dispostion prices single family residence and "splinter" land parcels in the Hannon project was approved last week by Seaside's Redevelopement Agency. The move clarified the cost and permitted use of remaining vacant land in the project.

Russell Hoss, executive director, said that his staff recommended the final sale of the land be determined by the fixed price competition method as provide in the HUD Urban Renewal Manual. This simply means that where there is more than one offer to purchase a parcel, the design review board will review the plans submitted from each purchaser and recommend sale be made to the one submitting the best plan.

Publisher's Report
Seaside Ripples

A.E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher

A.E. Barragan

It's back to school this week for most of the children on the peninsula. In the rest of the country they will be returning to school in most areas after the Labor Day holiday. Many of the colleges and universities will not take up until sometime late in September and early October, expecially if they are on the "quarter system".

Last year at this time, the country's fearmongers were predicting the fall of the entire college system because the radicals were going to burn down the establishment. I don't hear these "inciters to riot" breathing their poison into the air this year. Maybe they have been sobered up by the fact that their police and National Guard killed off quite a number of students last year and that the finger of guilt is being pointed at them with quite a bit of substantial evidence being shown that the National Guard were guilty of the unnecessary shootings at Kent State.

Trying to stop dissent with guns is like trying to stop crime with guns. By the time you have to use a gun it is too late. Solutions have to be found long before there has to be a confrontation on the campus and crime has to be stopped at the door of poverty long before the robber or policeman has to shoot. No matter how loud the modern-day 'Vigilantes' call for 'Law and Order', there has to be "law and justice" for everyone first.

Charles O'Brien, Democratic candidate for State Attorney-General, said it real well the other night at a reception held here at Seaside for him. He said, "We must be able to speak to the Young People; there must be law and justice and, yes, freedom for all,

Sierra Club Aluminum Drive Begins

If you've been saving aluminum containers and foil all summer, now's the time to clean them out of your carport and start them on the way to re-cycling.

The youth group of Sierra Club's Ventana Chapter will climax its summer collection campaign with a Peninsula-wide roundup Saturday, September 5.

If you can't make the trip to your nearest local high school September 5, there are two standing collection bins where you can drop off your aluminum any time, according to Jack Holmgren, coordinator of the drive.

A depot at Monterey Peninsula College is located at the corner just outside the parking lot across from the old Student Union. It is co-sponsored by the college Environment Action Club. A bin at Carmel High School is on the island in the administration building parking area.

Members of the youth group make regular pickups at both points. Money raised in the aluminum drive will be used by the youth group to make a 16mm film on coastal conservation.

Bank Loans

The Bank of America said recently it has already loaned over $50 million for home loans in California minority areas since launching a special program two years ago and hopes to double that amount by late 1971.

A.W. Clausen, president, said the bank has advanced $51,612,000 to 3,187 families for real estate loans in sections such as Watts and others classified as disadvantaged. Another $9,000,000 is in process, he said.

In addition, the bank has committed more than $1,492,000 for home improvements in minority communities.

Bank of America pledged $100 million for what it calls the New Opportunity Home Loans program in July, 1968.

The program got off slowly, according to Clausen, but gained momentum after the bank adverised the availability of the funds.

Clausen said the $100 million could be completely absorbed by the end of next year if the monthly volume of loans continues to hold as its present level.

The bank took the funds for the special program from its higher-yield investments because of the pressing urgency to increase home ownership and home improvements in ghetto areas, Clausen said.

Under the program, borrowers can build, buy or improve one-family to four-family dwellings; the mortgages are guaranteed or insured by the Federal Housing Administration or the Veterans Administration.

To help qualify applicants and real estate for financing in minority areas, B of A reduced both its credit and collateral requirements for the special loans.

Ninety-two of the bank's branches are involved in the effort, and 100 lending officers hand-picked for the job because of their wide experience in the minority field.

The officers have broader authority to grant loans and on occasion many of them have canvassed disadvantaged communities to tell residents about the program.

PG&E Sets Safety Record

Chalk up another safety record for Pacific Gas and Electric Company's Coast Valleys Division.

The employees in the division's Monterey Distric, unextended their record of manhours of work without a lost time injury to three million.

The district's 150 employees have been perpetuating this perfect safety achievment for the past 12 years, from May 29, 1958 to June 6, 1970. Monterey is the second district in the PG&E system to compile three million manhours of on-the-job safety.

Monterey employees won their first million man-hour safety award in 1962 and the second one in 1967. In addition Monterey District's electric department won a million man-hour award in 1967, and the gas department now is within seven months of attaining the million mark.

'Working safely has grown to be a tradition with our people,' said Hand. 'We have a definite safety program which has proved tremendously successful, as our record shows. Before starting out on a job, each member of every crew familiarizes himself with the crew's responsibilities and his own.'

FIESTA MEXICANA - Highlighting weekend firsta will be two presentations of famed Ballet Folklorico at Pattee Arena, September 5 & 6 at 8:30 p.m. Company of 75 is directed and Choreographed by Amalia Hernandez.

Registration Ends Soon

Mrs. Catherine Giarratana, Voter Registration Chairman for the Monterey County Democratic Central Committee, reminds all voters that the last day for registering to vote in the November 3 election is Thursday, September 10.

The Monterey County Democtratic Headquarters will be glad to furnish information on eligibility to vote to all voters, new citizens, new voters and those who have lost their registration through moving.

Absentee ballot applications are also available. The Headquarters are open Monday through Friday from 2 to 5 p.m., and Saturday from 9 to 12 a.m. The telephone number is 375-0202.

Calls outside these hours may be made to Mrs. Ursula Moore at 373-2377.

County Is Below State Tax Average

The average property assessment level in Monterey County is 22.6 percent of market value compared to the statewide average of 23.2 percent, according to figures issued by the State Board of Equalization recently.

Board Chairman George Reilly said, "26 counties have moved closer to the mandatory 25 percent assessment goal required in 1971."

Forty-four counties were within one percentage point of either the statewide average or the assessor's announced ratio. This performance is the best that has been achieved by county assessors since the inception of the program 15 years ago.

"A county's assessment ratio is the key to a number of programs involving more than $650 million in state school equalization aid, as well as assessment appeals, repayment of school construction funds borrowed from the State, tax rates of intercounty districts, and other matters," Reilly said.

Army to Study Pollution

Colonel Charles R. Roberts, San Francisco District Engineer, recently announced new Corps of Engineers' permit requirements under the Refuse Act of 1899 concerning discharges into navigable waters and their tributaries.

All applicants for permits to build such outfalls must now list what is going to be contained in the discharges so that environmental effects can be analyzed.

This regulation will be enforced by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Colonel Roberts said, with the Federal Water Quality Administration and the State's San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board overseeing compliance with water quality standards.

The Corps' revised requirements are in accordance with the Environmental Policy Act of 1969 which requires agencies to consider environmental impact in the administration of public laws, Roberts said.

Roberts noted that he has instructed the San Francisco District's Environmental Control Section to review existing permits so that waste inventories may be assembled and added that such future permit Applications will not be granted unless they comply with the revised requirements.

Through widespread knowledge of these new permit requirements. Roberts said he hopes that industries will be encouraged to accelerate their own anti-pollution efforts.

Tunney Kicks Off Campaign

Representative John V. Tunney will take his campaign for the United States Senate directly to the people.

"I am not going to campaign from TV studios and with carefully staged media productions," Tunney said this week in announcing the September 3 kick-off of his an old fashioned rally in Riversue at which Tunney, son of former heavyweight boxing champion Gene Tunney, will make a major policy address amid banners and bands.

"Mostly, however, I want personally to thank the residents of the district for all the wonderful support they've given me.

"They sent me to Congress six years ago, and they've given me increasing majorities in the elections every two years since.

"Mine is not going to be a remote and impersonal campaign," the 36-year-old Congressman emphasized.

"I know my opponent's managers prefer millions of electronically produced computerized letters to voters, but I believe that voters prefer to hear and see their candidates.

"I plan to visit as many cities and meet as many Californians as I possibly can before the November 3 elec-

A USEFUL LOOK AHEAD

In the Nation's Business Magazine, a part of this article which read "Hey World, Look us Over!" is repeated: "The United States Travel Service is teaming up with businessmen to bring more foreign tourists and their money to our shores. Mr. Washburn, director of the United States Travel Service, stated that the United States has spent very little to woo tourists back to California." About two weeks ago chamber manager appeared before the Board of Supervisors with a request that they restudy the chamber's subvention funds and restore the County Advertising fund to the Chamber of the County. However the Supervisors sat there as solid as the Rock of Gibralter.

EMERGENCY NUMBER 911

You will remember that several months ago the Seaside Chamber of Commerce gave 911 a very light study and the matter was tabled.

At a recent meeting of the California Council on Criminal Justice Advisary Board, it was proposed of linking all emergency services in Montery County to one number, 911.

Art McDole of the Monterey County Communication Division proposed that a federal grant be sought for $320,000 to pay for the establishmen of the emergency number, which could be dialed on any telephone. It would be connected directly to the communication Center, which in turn would relay the information to an agency. A station would be set up to handle Monterey Peninsula area emergencies.

McDole informed the meeting that complaints and dispatches in the county area handled individually by county communications and the six largest cities. Some centers handle police matters only, while others respond to fire and other emergency calls; a total telephone listing of more than 60 different numbers for police, fire and ambulance services new is required.

Under the plan the single 911 number can be called from any place in the county and linked by trained personnel to police, fire, ambulance and emergency highway service and state and federal agencies as required.

The 911 plan will be reviewed at the next meeting of the group, Chairman Louis Haddad stated.

GUIDE DOGS FOR THE BLIND, INC.

Carmel Valley's beautiful new Rencho Canada Golf Clubhouse is the setting chosen by Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., for their gala Autumn Fashion and Supper Party on Tuesday, September 15. Exciting new Fall fashions from four outstanding local shops will be shown at the event, which begins with a social hour at 6:00p.m.

Guests will be greeted by seven young 4-H Club girls from the Salinas area and the future Guide Dogs they are caring for in cooperation with the Guide Dog school. The puppies are bred at the school in San Rafael and "adopted" at the age of 3 months by 4-H Club members who care for them and teach basic obedience in a home atmosphere. The dogs are returned to the school at the age of 12 to 15 months, where they are given the 3 to 5 months concentrated training required to develop a Guide Dog. Three breeds of dogs are used in the program: German Shepherds, Golden Retrievers and Labrador Retrievers. The 4-H Club care is an important part of the training program as it orients the dogs to living in a home and family situation.

Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. has maintained its school since 1942, when it was established in Los Gatos, primarily to serve blind veterans. Services were expanded shortly thereafter to include all deserving blind persons and the school was moved to its present location in San Rafael in 1947. The organization is supported wholly by private contributions and by fund raising events sponsored by local area committees. There is no charge to blind persons for either the dog or the 28 day-in-residence training period. A dramatic moment in the graduation ceremony is the presentation of the Guide Dog to its master by the 4-H Club child who cared for it.

There are at present four Guide Dogs in service on the Monterey Peninsula: one in Carmel, two in Pacific Grove, and one very recent graduate in Seaside. There is also one in Salinas.

Mrs. Van Court Warren of Pebble Beach is Guide Dogs for the Blinc, Inc. Committee Chairman for the Monterey Peninsula. She is assisted in planning the September 15th event by Mrs. Barbara Haber, party arrangement; Mrs. William Harder, fashion coordinator; Mrs. Robert Stanton, decorations; Mrs. John Ward, seating; Mr. Louis Hawley, Finances; Miss Hortense Lion, special photography; Mrs. William Ballard, tickets; Mrs. Nancy Sprague, posters; Mrs. Charles French, publicity. Mrs. Virginia Frohman and Mrs. Church Chappell will be fashion commentators.

Models serving are Mrs. Pieppont Hamilton, President of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., Mrs. William Ballard, Mrs. Allen Gillis, Mrs. George McMahan, Mrs. Richard Townley, Mrs. Lynn Cox, Mrs. Jerone Tuck, Mrs. J. Ritchie Dunn, Mrs. Ruthie Watts, Mrs. Willard Branson, Miss Leslie Dunn and Miss Bridget Radford. Fashions to be shown are from Elizabeth Simmons, Rose Brown, The Silver Thimble and Carmel Bridal Shop.

Tickets, which are $10.00, may be purchased at Abinante's Music Store, Monterey Savings and Loan, Monterey; M. Raggett's and the Corner Cupboard, Carmel; Jerome of Pebble Beach, Rancho Canada, Carmel Valley; or by calling 624-8134, 373-4040, 375-0823 or 624-7584.

As a special attraction, some lucky ticket holder will win two days at the Hotel Tropicana, Los Vegas, with transportation courtesy of Ashley-Handford Travel Agency.

It is to be noted that Carolyn Cathcart of Seaside, graduated August 15th with dog. She has completed two years at MPC and plans to attend U.C. Berkeley this Fall.

including the young."

Apropos of the above, I was speaking to my son Robert, the other day about acollege. Bob will be a senior at Monterey High this semester, and we somehow got on the subject of comic books. He told me that they are being read even more avidly now than ever. This came as quite a surprise to me because I thought comic books were always full of propaganda, extolling the virtues of our society, such as Daddy Warbucks and Mickey Mouse. That isn't so, says my son. He said many of the comic books of today are relevant to the movements that are taking place in our society. Well, lo and and behold right after that conversation I see in last Sunday's San Francisco Chronicle that "Captain America", Marvel Comics answer to Daddy Warbucks, has taken up the cudgels in favor of dissent. I'll quote Michel Stern's column put out by the Times-Post Service from Washington.

" 'I've beenasked to speak to you today - to warn America about those who try to change our institutions. But, in a pig's eye I'll warn you!

'This Nation was founded by dissidents-by people who wanted something better. There's nothing sacred about the status quo-and there never wil be!

'I don't believe in using force or violence-because they can be the weapons of those who would enslave us. Nor do I believe in an establishment that remains so aloof- so distant- that the people are driven to desperate measure- as in the case of a college dean who isolates himself from his student body!' "

"Could it be Captain America?

"Yes, it's Marvel Comic's living legend of World War II, arch foe of the Red Skull and Yellow Mandarin, whose sidekick Bucky was killed by the Red Chinese, and whose red, white and blue star-spangled uniform is still intact in this October, 1970, issue.

"Cap's little speech to a nationwide TV audience comes after he has stumbled into a campus riot during a fit of despondency over whether an old-fashioned patriot like himself is still relevant in today's world. The riot, complete with helmeted police clubbing rock-throwing students, was sparked by legitimate student grievances but exploited by hard-core revolutionaties. Cap, after a moment of indecision (who are the bad guys?), zaps the creeps, saves the dean from the consequences of his inaction, and rides off to the TV station, puzzled by the moral ambiguities of his actions.

"Sound familiar? 'Relevance' - with a liberal tinge-has come with a vegeance to the comics.

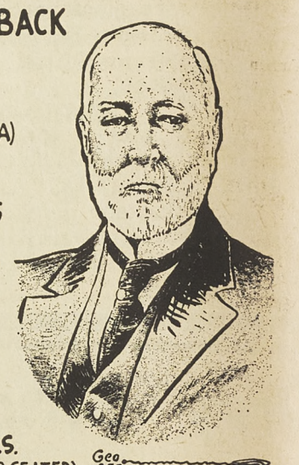

"It didn't come overnight. Marvel Comics came out with a campus crisis epic as far back as 1968. But concern (ranging from moderately intelligent to puerile) over issues like poverty, racism and the war in Vietnam has begun to dominate even the establishment mags of National Comics (DC), the long-time leader in the comics field with over 75 million sales a year."

Isn't that a marvel to you too. It was to me and what my son was telling me is taking place in our schools and colleges. Our young people are aware of the disease of decadence that is creeping into our social system. They are, in their way, trying to publicize it for all of us to see. Too many of us have our heads in the sand, like an Ostrich, and refuse to see what is going on about us. No wonder we get kicked with our posterior in that position.

Grooving Around The Peninsula

with Betty Mann

HI THERE FELLOW PENINSULANS

Here's hoping that all of my friends, foes and readers were able to decipher and understand last weeks column with the numerous typographical errors and mispelling. It seems that constantly in each issue zillions of errors are created by the typesetters that print this column, but I'm constantly reminded by my boss that even the S.F. Chronicle makes as many errors??

Well now this week again I wish to unruffle a few more feathers in the community (smile) Seems like I'm getting pretty pro at this! (smile)

What do you citizens of this area think of the incident that happened to the gentleman from Seaside who was refused membership into the Del Rey Oaks Moose Lodge, because his wife was of Japanese ancestry, and I guess she was considered and classified by the Moose Lodge as a non-white individual. It seems she was considered and classified by the Moose Lodge as a non-white individual. It seems to me that in the Moose lodge's membership rules, a person must be a pure blooded Caucasian in order to become a member, how ridiculous! As I passed by the Moose Lodge, today and saw the american flag waving high and proud on the ground in front of the building I though of the Elks who passed their undemocratic ruling last month in S.F., limiting their membership to Caucasians only. I thought how hypocritical! Here these two organizations fly the flag proudly demonstrating all of the valued integrities of all americans and our democratic standards of living, yet possessing within its realms, an organization that reflects along the same lines as Hitlers' infamous fascist regime. (one superior Race Only) If I were (unfortunate) enough to be a member of the Del Rey Oaks Moose Lodge or a member of the Elks; (the order of Elks that have the discriminatory ruling) I would be ashamed to ever again state that "I believe in equality," and "human rights," and "to uphold the american democratic system" of which so many of us preach about and state that we are dedicated to. So a word to the officers and members of the Del Rey Oaks Moose Lodge, you have by refusing membership to this Caucasian gentleman from Seaside, (who by choice happens to have a very lovely and talented Jpanese wife) the sad feeling and disillusions of the members of all the ethnic groups on the Peninsula, such as the Japanese, Blacks, Filipinos, Chicanos, Hawaiians, Chinese, Indians and all other persons of the non-white race.

"BICENTENNIAL HAPPENINGS"

Back again to the Afro-Bicentennial of yesterweek! On Tuesday Nite at the fish fry at Custom House Plaza over 1,000 persons attended this well planned gala affair which was a huge success. This special event was organized by Helyn Mitchell of Seaside.

On Wednesday afternoon a very relaxing afternoon was enjoyed by guests of Dr. Henry Hutchins who hosted a pool-side party given in honor of Dr. John Akar at Rippling River resort in Carmel Valley. Those persons attending this sunny afternoon of cocktails, and swimming, enjoyed the lively antics and conversation of the intriguing Ambassador from Sierra Leone. Persons attending were Mrs. Bert Hutchins, Mrs. E.J. Montgomery, from Oakland, Mrs. Noni Scott, of Boston, Mrs. Dessie Ellis, Mrs. Charlie Knight, Mrs. Jan Van Hook, Mr. Walter Brown, Mr. Cleve Williams, Mrs. Betty Mann and others.

On Wednesday nite a community forum was held at Seaside High. The Ambassador, and other distinguished guests attended and gave short speeches; Lt. Col. Drummond received from Dr. Henry Hutchins heroic medals and citations from the U.S. Army, that were purposely held by Dr. Hutchins to be presented to Lt. Col. Drummond at this Bicentennial event. Col Drummond retired from the service in June.

On Friday Nite (I missed Thursday Nights the Liberators performance) at the Sunset Auditorium in Carmel the all Black cast of actors from S.F. presented a very humorous play with the cast in white face, called A DAY OF ABSENCE, which was very funny. It told how one morning all the Blacks from a small backwoodstown in the South, vacated their jobs, homes and stayed out of sight one entire day. The town was declared disaster struck, one mother didn't know how to care for her baby because the Black nanny had left with the protestors, one store couldn't function because their were no Blacks to work, everyone was wondering where they were hiding. (smiles) But the next day when the once humble and foot shuffling Blacks decided to come back they were giving Black power salutes, and talking back to Mr. Charlie and all of their insecure dispositions had changed to one of arrogance. The entire audience Black and White whooped with laughter at the characters in this very outstanding and humorous play.

On Saturday Nite the Jazz Festival was held at M.P.C. only an estimated 150 persons attended this affair. (I don't know why, because they missed a treat). My favorite of the show was lovely Oadie Coates who sang like a song bird, that reminded you of Nancy Wilson & her style of singing.

"LABOR DAY WEEKEND HAPPENINGS"

Don't forget this coming weekend events. On Friday Sept. 4th the Reagents Club will sponsor a bus ride to Reno, the purpose of the trip is a weekend of gambling and relaxation (that's if you can relax while gambling) (smile). The price for the trip is $15.00, $7.00 will be refunded from this fee for gambling when you arrive in Reno. The bus will leave on Fri. September 4th at 7:00 p.m. from the Del Ray Theatre, and will return Saturday nite at 7:00 P.M. For ticket information please call any of the members of the Reageants Club, or your truly at 394-1308, (no calls from pranksters please!)

To make this labor day weekend complete, you N.C.O. military people can enjoy an evening with Jeannie Riley and The Harper Valley Express on Fri. September 4th starting at 9p.m. On Sat. nite Sept. 5th the fabulous Shirelles, will also be appearing at the Main N.C.O. Club. The first show begins at 9 p.m. On the brochure for both of these events, states, "surprises! surprises!" come early and stay late!??

Happy Holidays, Betty

New Nursery School Course To Be Offered

A San Jose State College extension course in the administration and supervision of nursery schools (Education X121) will be offered at Monterey Peninsula College in the fall, according to Mrs. Mary Crawford, who directs the nursery school program at MPC.

The upper-division course, Mrs. Crawford says, will earn for persons who take it the final three units needed for nursery school administration after completion of the 12 basis units offered at MPC in nursery school teaching.

There will be 15 Thursday meetings, 7 to 10 p.m. in Room H-205, begining October 1 and concluding January 28, 1971, with Mrs. Colden Whitman of Carmel, instructor, collecting registration fees of $57 at the opening session.

Mrs. Whitman, who has been a pre-school teacher in Carmel since 1965, is a graduate of Mills College with a bachelor's degree in child development and a nursery school certificate.

The course is designed to acquaint the student with the background, nature and need for effective operation of nursery schools. Among topics covered will be the legal aspects, parent relations, child supervision, equipment and supplies, physical plan, time schedules and insurance involved in the administration of a nursery school.

Mrs. Crawford emphasized that "this course is sort of a trial balloon in this area. The response will dictate its future." She said she would be glad to answer the questions of prospective students at 372-0626.

Seaside Apaches Win Jamboree

The Seaside Apaches, the peninsula's newly-formed Pop Warner football team for young men aged 11 to 13, scored a total of 50 points to win the Jamboree held at the Monterey Peninsula College Stadium on Sunday, August 30.

Local fans saw the Apaches also lead the opposing teams in yardage gained by totaling 263 yards offensively.

Second closest team, the Salinas Coalts, and last year's Pop Warner champions, totaled 32 points and 239 yards offensively.

Other teams playing in the Jamboree were: Castroville Bulldogs, Salinas Steinbeck Tigers and the Hollister Vikings.

The Apaches first league game will be played against the Bulldogs on September 13 at the Fort Ord Football Field. Kickoff time is 2 p.m.

Fullback Eric ("Chiefy") Byrom led the Apaches in scoring.

Three Buddies Are Now in Marine Corps

On August 21, three Seaside men enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. They are Kim W. Iverson (for 2 years), Donald R. Jones (for 2 years, and Tommy J. Jones (for three years).

University of Man Needs Class Leaders

The University of Man, formerly known as the Monterey Peninsula Free University, will begin its second year of operation in October by offering a varied program of "small, informal and non-authoritarian 'classes,' " a university spokesman announced today.

In organizing its fall semester, the university is now seeking offers from Peninsula residents to lead "groups, classes, workshops or seminars" in any subject in which they feel qualified to do so. "If you have a talent, skill, area of knowledge, enthusiasm, philosophy, cause - something you want to bring to other people, to share with them, to teach them, perhaps to change them - please think of offering a class through the University of Man," the spokesman said.

The groups are autonomous, the spokesman pointed out. The groups then meet in private homes or on the Monterey Peninsula campus.

Participation in classes will be open to everyone, with one-dollar registration fee for attending one or more groups to be charged this year.

Persons wishing to lead groups, make suggestions or ask questions may write University of Man, c/o Monterey Peninsula College, 980 Fremont, Monterey; drop a note in the University of Man mailbox in the college administration building: phone 375-9821, Extension 268 or 323; or attend a general meeting Tuesday, Sept. 15, 8 p.m. in the MPC library lecture hall.

Brochures and registration information will be issued early in October.

Unique Classroom Proposed

An innovative, educational complex utilizing the natural Monterey Bay enviroment and to be known as Samuel F.B. Morse Memorial Park has been proposed by AMPERe, the Association for Monterey Peninsula Enviromental Resources.

AMPERe's "living musem" concept would have Del Monte Dunes and Moss Beach become the initial open-space sites which would be turned into outdoor teaching laboratories for Monterey Bay regional primary and secondary education classes, as well as residents and tourists.

As additional coastline stretches could be donated or purchased, says AMPERe, they would be added to the Morse Park system to provide complete course experiences in natural history, ecology, geography, geology, botany and biology.

The AMPERe proposal emphasizes that the educational usage opens up many avenues for potential funding, if only the cities and citizens in the Monterey Bay region have the imagination to explore them.

Such a natural installation would preserve open space, conduct research and coordinate natural environment to be the basis for a regional natural science textbook for schoolchildren, encourage additional natural science professionals to do marine and coastal research here, preserve the legacy of the Monterey Bay as a tourist attraction, and be a fitting memorial to Samuel F.B. Morse, says AMPERe's proposal.

Report Is Available

The Changing Economic Picture within the Central Coast Counties is the subject of a Manpower Report recently published by the Research and Statistics section of the Department of Human Resources Development. The study deals with labor market movements within major industries since 1965 and includes forecasts to 1975.

It also presents an occupational profile of the Monterey, Santa Cruz and San Benito Tri-County labor market, and identifies significant changes in job categories within specific industries.

The study is the second made of the Tri-County labor market by the Department of Human Resources Development. It updates the 1966 survey and extends the forecast period an additional five years.

Copies of the Manpower Report are available to local business and industrial establishments and agencies through the Department of Human Resources Development at 480 Webster Street, Monterey, P.O. Box 1150 or Telephone 373-0143.

Don't let the low price fool you. This is a quality reference work in every sense of the word. The publishers called upon over 200 leading authorities, experts in their respective fields, including Nobel Prize winners, to help gather the information and to write the easily understandable text. It contains nearly 10,000 pages in 25 beautifully bound volumes. 7,000,000 words. 30,000 subjects. Over 5,000 pictures and illustrations. Plus a full-color World Atlas. Highway Work To be Done Near Here

The California Division of Highways is calling for bids on major federal aid secondary road project in Monterey County and improvement projects on two State highways in Monterey and San Luis Obispo counties.

A 1.6-mile segment of Blanco Road, aobur four miles west of Salinas is to be constructed as a two-lane conventional road, including a concrete box girder bridge across the Salinas River. Granding will also be done for future expansion of the facility to four lanes.

The new construction, between Reservation and Cooper roads, will widen existing short curves, improve the horizontal grade as well as shoulders and other deficiencies. It will also correct periodic flooding which has resulted from the low-level bridge.

A total of approximately $1,210,000 is available for the project.

Bid opening is scheduled for September 23 in Sacramento. Completion is planned for late 1971.

The west end of the project connects with Reservation Road which is four lanes divided by a four-foot median.

At the east enc of the rpoject, existing Blanco Road -- two lanes -- continues through the City of Salinas and connects to the Salinas-Monterey highway (State Route 68) and Route 101.

When completed, this project will provide one of three major routes connectiong the Monterey Peninsula withe the Salinas Valley.

Another Monterey County project calls for resurfacing 3.7 miles of Route 156 between a mile east of Route 1 at Castroville and a half-mile west of Route 101 near Prunedale.

Bids on the project, for which approximately $57,000 is available, will be opened September 23 in Sacramento.

Another project will reconstruct Route 41 in San Luis Obispo County at 2.3 miles west and 4.1 miles west of the Kern County line.

Water seepage from the cut banks have undermined the roadbed. Remedial work will consist of installing underdrains, constructing an interception ditch along the sides of the highway, and building a new structural section over the existing roadbed.

A total of $82,500 is available for the project, on which bids will be opened September 23 in Sacramento.

Works For Drug Abuse Center Here

Seaside councilman Steve Ross, who is also Director of the Monterey Peninsula Area Service Center, attended the second workshop on Drug Abuse. The workshop was held at the Los Angeles International Airport Friday, August 21, 1970. This workshop centered around live-in treatment facilities.

Attending as Director of the Monterey Peninsula Area Service Center, Ross also represented the Monterey County Task Force, Inc. and the Young Adults for Action at the workshop.

Ross stated that his prime reason for attending the workshop was to seek financial and technical support for the establishment of live-in units on the Peninsula, especially in the Seaside area.

There is a great need for expansion of this kind of serve on the Monterey Peninsula, Ross stated. Poor people have many problems in this area. First, they are not able to support the habit. Second, they can no affort to get proper treatment because they are no able to pay the cost of live-in facilities if they happen to find room in one of the existing houses. This is especially ture of minority groups or individuals.

Ross, stated that he was pleased with the results of the conference. He stated that he was able to "turn them on" concerning the Peninsula's needs and was promised support from the professionals present, as well as from the Governor's Office.

At the present time Ross, operates on Alcoholic Information Center, at the Monterey Peninsula Area Service Center. It is a joint project sponsored by the National Council on Alcoholism and the Service Center. It is staffed by volunteers.

Radicals Are Losing Meets With Law Groups

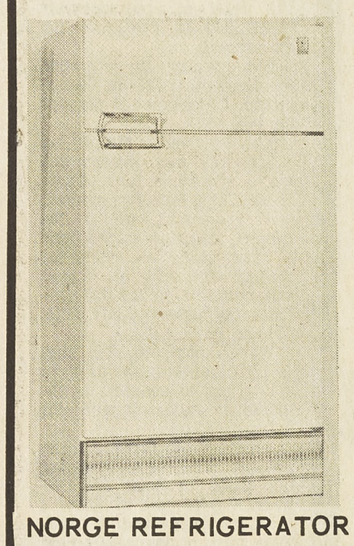

A report issued by the League for Industrial Democracy says that the radical student movement is disintegrating because it is torn by factionalism and frustration.

According to the report a majority of college students are moderates.

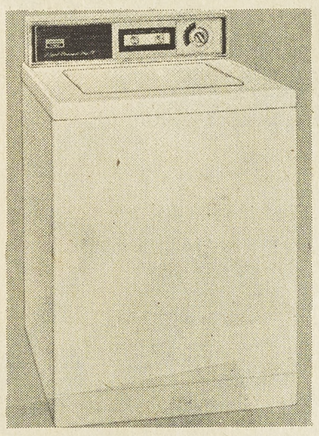

The report by the League, which is a social reform movement founded in 1905 by Upton Sinclair, Clarence Datrow and Jack London, says that student radicals, by provoking the opposition of labor and the representative Black groups, have destroyed its possibilities of becoming a mass movement.

The league reported that their survey, which covered 50 campuses, found that only 8.5 percent of student leaders favored the "New Left" while 30.5 percent classified themselves liberals. The rest identified themselves as moderates. 8.5 percent classified themselves as conservatives.

Who Cares

BY Mel Vercoe

Don't let anybody tell you the Seaside Police Department is not on the ball.

Sunday afternoon the tranquliity in front of a popular Seaside drinking establishment was interrupted by an obvious case of misunderstanding between a taxicab driver and a lady who arrived at the bar. She could easily have been confused about having paid for the ride. He was not confused about it at all, and was determined to get his two dollars and twenty cents.

After an argument that found him waiting outside the bar empty-handed, he called somebody on his radio and in a few minutes four police officers in four police cars were on the scene.

Not just one policeman in one police car, but four, so if you plan on a short trip by taxi in the Seaside area, it might be well to check your financial structure first.

Speaking of finances, Chicago is trying out the year-round school system. Some readers may recall I stirred former Gov. Brown, (with letters to the Monterey Herald and the San Jose Mercury) about five years ago into advocating changing our nine month system to a year-around program. Actually, he had the matter studied for feasibility at a conference in Los Angeles that same year and just a few months ago they completed the changing over of the college semester system so that it could be put into effect in California.

But, alas, now that the hard work is all done they have discovered it will cost twenty-some million dollars to make the final change-over, although it would save the taxpayers some 50 million in the first four or five years, so it has been quietly set aside until somebody squawks enough to reactivate it. How are your taxes, by the way?

And speaking of people squawking, this new women's liberation movement could bear watching. One faction of it is a group called NOW, which means something like National Organization for Women or words to that effect, and they seem to think that by organizing they can make a study of some of the issues of the day and vote intelligently enough to nullify some of the uninformed vote-casting that has created the shambles we fondly refer to as local, national and foreign policies.

If I were a politician, I would try to organize my fellow politicians into a group to stamp out this faction called NOW, because if there is one thing politicians don't want to have to put up with it is a bunch of people who know what is going on when they head for the election booths on "try to keep your job day."

Basically, the women heading this organization have a point. Almost all of our legislators and high officials have been men and the general record of their accomplishments during the last twenty-five years has really not been something to write home about, which means there is no direction to go but up, so--who would you rather buy a used car from, a woman President or President Nixon?

Weisberg Added

The Tim Weisberg Quintet has been added to the lineup of artists to appear at the Monterey Jazz Festival.

The Quintet, Tim Weisberg on bass flute, Chris Parlato on drums, Dave Parlato on bass, Lynn Blessing on vibes, and Art Johnson on guitar, will perform during the opening concert, Friday evening, September 18.

This will be Weisberg's second appearance at Monterey. Last year he played with the Festival Orchestra in the World Premiere Performance of "The Rise and Fall of the Third Stream" conducted by its composer, Bill Fischer.

Weisberg, who plays amplified flute and uses a sonar-like device which creates multiple echoes sounding similar to sound waves under water, is well-known in the Southern California jazz club circuit. A student of classical flute, he is experimenting with electronics and jazz and rock idioms.

Jazz critic Leonard Feather has observed: "Weisberg shows what a little time and the right listening habits can do in guiding an inquisitive musician from the classical route to jazz roots."

For information on the Monterey Jazz Festival write P.O. Box JAZZ, Monterey, California, 93940, or telephone 373-3366. Tickets are also on sale at ABC Music Store, 409 Alvarado Street, Monterey, (408) 373-1882; Gadsby's Music Store, 342 Main Street, Salinas, (408) 424-6421; and Carmel Music Store, Dolores and Sixth, Carmel, (408) 624-9695.

It's only been around a few months.

Sneak preview of next year's Volkswagen sedan.

(Low Cost Lease Purchase Plan Available)
If you just bought this year's VW sedan, congratulations.
Next year nobody will know you're not driving next year's VW sedan.
Because next year's beetle will look like this year's beetle. (What else?) And every other beetle we've ever made.
So it will be just as hard to tell a 20-year-old VW from a brand new VW.
Buying a car that doesn't go out of style has still another benefit: you don't take a beating when you sell it.
A VW depreciates very slowly.
But even though next year's Volkswagen won't be different, it will be different.
We've made some nice improvements. As usual. (Over 2200 since 1949.)
So in next year's VW you can look forward to a new ——— and a bigger ———and a different—
Well, you wouldn't want us to give away all our little secrets, would you?
What kind of sneaky preview would that be?

Board Member To Retire

Announcement was made by The Christian Science Board of Directors that by his own request Inman H. Douglass, C.S.B., will retire from that Board on Octiber 1 and will be succeeded by Dewitt John, C.S.B., of Boston.

John has been Editor of The Christian Science Monitor since May, 1964. He will be succeeded in that post by John hughes, the Monitor's Pulitzer Prize-winning Far Eastern correspondent who was named Managing Editor in June of this year.

For twenty years, Mrs. Douglass has served the church in various important capacities such as Committee on Pulbication for Texas, as Manager of the Washington, D.C., Office of Committee on Publication, as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship and as a Director of The Mother Church. He is retiring to devote his full time to the teaching and practice of Christian Science in Dallas.

"Reluctant though we are to see Mr. Douglass go," the Board stated, "he will have our deep gratitude and love as he returns to the field of labor which has always been close to his heart."

Since becoming a Director, Mr. Douglass has lived in Boston, where his energy and vision have contributed much to the progress of the movement. He will be returning to the city where he first became active in Christian Science. He will conduct his classes and pupils' association meetings in Dallas.

A native of Arizona, John graduated from The Principia College, Elsah, Illinois, in 1936. He holds an M.A. degree in political science from the University of Chicago and an M.S. in journalism from Columbia University. A lifelong Christian Scientist, he joined the church in 1927 and received primary class instruction in 1937. He has been listed in The Christian Scientist, he joined the church in 1927 and received primary class instruction in 1937. He has been listed in The Christian Science Journal as a practitioner of Christian Science since 1958. In 1964 he became an authorized teacher of Christian Science. He is the author of a book, "The Christian Science Way of Life," published jointly with "a Christian Scientist's Life," by Erwin D. Canham, in 1962.

Computer Is Sought By State Parks

State Parks and Recreation Director William Penn Mott, Jr., has announced that the requests for proposals put out by his department for a computerized reservation system have resulted in a number of interesting responses.

"These are currently being studied," Mott said, "and if all goes well we should have a system ready in 1971 whereby the public can make reservations by computer as far ahead as 90 days for state park campsites and Hearst Monument tours."

The proposal requests were sent to some 50 computer firms throughout the country and specified that the contractor provide a network of outlets conveniently located in population centers around the state. Specific locations would be left up to the contractor, but the department will operate outlets as its Sacramento headquarters.

Newlyweds Are Home

Mr. and Mrs. David Andrew Tipton have recently returned to their San Jose home from their honeymoon in Oregon and Washington, following their mariage at St. Francis Xavier Church in Seaside.

The bride, the former Dorita Jean Jud, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Jud, are franchise owners of Mr. Ed's restaurants in Seaside and Monterey, wore a floor length gown of white organza and peau d'ange lace designed with a sabrina neckline, flounced sleeves and dirndl skirt.

Laurel Ann Jud was her sister's maid of honor. The bride's maid was Dana Houghton of Los Angeles.

The bridegroom's brothers, Douglas and Richard Tipton, served as best man and usher respectively.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jake Jones, aunt and uncle of the bride, Colonel and Mrs. Ray Tipton of Oregon, another uncle, and Mrs. Pauline Littler of Hermosa Beach.

David is a student at San Jose State College. His bride, who is the niece of Andrew Barragan, publisher of the POST, will enter SJS this fall.

IN THEIR CUPS

The Curtis Cup was launched in 1927 to stimulate "friendly rivalry between the women golfers of many lands" (the inscription on the trophy). The Curtis Cup is played for by two teams of women amateur golfers representing the United States on one side and England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland and Eire on the other. The competition is staged every two years, alternating between the United States and Great Britian. The format is very much like that of its men's counterpart, the World Cup.

Comet May Set Record

The addition of the Mercury Comet small car to Lincoln-Mercury's 1971 line-up will propel the division to an all-time model year record of sales, B. E. Bidwell Ford vice-president and division general manager, predict.

He told newsmen that the original Comet was an immediate hit when it was introduced in 1960 and the 1971 Comet has the same potential.

The new model is smaller on the outside than the original Comet and many of today's compacts, but the interior dimension are comparable to those for intermediate sizes cars, Bidwell says.

Bidwell forecasts that the small car market, composed of compacts, subcompacts and imports, will account for

Holds First Class Reunion

The school spirit of Seaside High's first graduating class - the class of 1965 - is not dead.

This was evident Saturday night, August 22nd, when their first five-year reunion was held at the Holiday Inn in Carmel. Approximately 100 people were there to help celebrate the event.

The distinguished guests included Mr. Myron Greene, the school principal, who is presently starting another high school at Atascadero, California and his wife; Mr. Gerald Anderson, the former vice-principal who is now head of the Adult Education Department in the Monterey School System and his wife; and Seaside Councilman Stephen Ross, whose daughter, Rosi, is a member of the '65 class.

One of the graduates, Patricia Ector, who is a member of the "Up with People" singing group which had just finished touring Europe and will next travel to Africa, flew in from Spain to participate and meet her old classmates.

About twenty of the graduates were a bit anxious so they had a pre-reunion gab and eating fest which was held at Monterey Lanes on Friday. This moved to Sambo's of Monterey and ended at three o'clock Saturday morning.

They met with the rest of their fellow graduates at the Holiday Inn in Carmel Saturday Night. The reunion party included dinner, speeches, presentation of gag gifts, the showing of the movie taken at the senior class all-night party and dancing to the music of the 87th Off Broadway Jamm Sounds until one a.m.

Most of the people went home after that, but the "die-hards" moved the party over to Sambo's once again.

After half this group was eliminated, the last of the spirited went to Cypress Bowl where, finally, the end of the reunion was clocked at four o'clock Sunday morning.

New Program To Be Used By MPC

Fulltime or parttime students who register for day or evening courses at Monterey Peninsula College, Thursday or Friday, September 3 and 4 will also have an opportunity to consult with Mrs. Rosetta Smith, MPC's new work experience education coordinator, about participation in a program through which they can, while both studying and working, earn units of college credit.

In previous years, only those defined as "fulltime" students were eligible for work experience education. work experience education credit, according to Dr. David Hopkins, MPC associate dean of instruction. However, a recent change in the California Administrative Code now permits participation by parttime students who are enrolled in "a planned program of community college education," and who, with their employers, meet certain specifications.

Hopkins said that MPC is now prepared to offer two types of work experience education programs. The first, the vocational program, is designed to extend vocational learning opportunities to the student through employment in the occupation for which his college program has been designed.

The second program is for the student whose job is not necessarily related to his occupational goal. This program is designed to assist him, through supervised employment in a "real" job, to acquire desirable work habits and attitudes.

Both programs earn units of college credit for the student. In the second program, these may be applied toward the Associate in Arts or Associate in Science degree. In the vocational program they will count toward completion of a major and or the '20 required for earning a certificate of achievement in a vocational area.

Interested students, whether employed or seeking employment, may apply to Mrs. Smith during registration, when she will be on duty at a table in the gymnasium daily, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 6:30 to 9 p.m. After September 10, she may be contacted in her office in the new student center.

Campers Should Be Deputies

William Penn Mott Jr., Director of the State Department of Parks and Recreation, is looking to "deputize" every visitor to a state park or beach this coming Labor Day holiday.

"We are going to have record crowds next weekend," Mott said, "and we'll need all the help we can get--particularly in the matter of litter."

He explained that his department's rangers will be up to their Stetsons in campers and picnickers during the three-day weekend. If they have to spend all their time in litter cleanup there will be little left for anything else.

"If everyone will be a deputy ranger," he said, "and just clean up after himself, it will help tremendously and will free our park rangers for more important functions such as public safety, interpretation, and visitor assistance.
